

DOCKIES

60 seconds with ADAM OTTAVINO

Rockies Magazine pulled aside the Rockies reliever and New York native for a minute of hard-hitting questions.

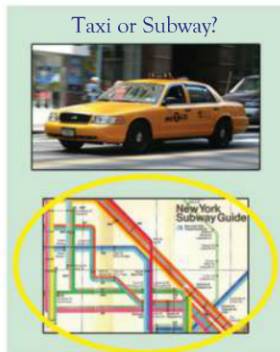

Okay, let's start off with some New York questions since you were born and raised in Brooklyn. What was the best thing about growing up in New York? The best part was being surrounded by so many different types of people and cultures.

What was the worst thing about growing up in New York? The baseball fields are not the best.

Your mom is a teacher back in New York. So who was your favorite schoolteacher and your favorite subject growing up? Miss Barrett, my second grade teacher, really got me into reading.

Statue of Liberty or Empire State Building?

Taxi or Subway?

Bagel Hot Dog Cheesecake Pizza

Specifically La Bagel Delight [a Brooklyn institution]

And what would you say is the best thing about living in Colorado? The mountain air

Favorite food? It has to be Italian food.

Specifically, what is your favorite kind of Italian food? Veal Parmesan

Favorite breakfast cereal? Corn Flakes

What is something you get every time you go to the grocery store? Bottled water

Do you subscribe to any magazines or newspapers? The New Yorker

Favorite movie? Goodfellas

Favorite actor or actress? Edward Norton

Name a song that's been playing on your iPod a lot? "Furthest Thing" by Drake

If you were a professional wrestler, what would your name be? The Big O

Favorite Beastie Boys song? "Sabotage"

If you hit the Powerball, what's the first thing you would buy? Another lottery ticket

Best advice you ever received? From who? "Be yourself." From my dad.

Funniest current teammate? Chad Bettis

What is the best way to spend a mid-season off-day? Sleeping

Favorite road trip city? San Francisco

Best baseball memory? My big league debut

Best bullpen area? Coors Field, of course. Our bullpen is the best.